Marin Hudson

Partner + Creative Director

Education

B.A. Linguistics (Honours)

Post-Grad Certificate in Autism + Behavioural Science

Advanced Diploma in Graphic Design

About

Marin is a community-minded designer who finds joy in all things creative, and in connecting and supporting others. From designing an annual report to crafting the perfect pizza, she thrives in collaborating with a team to make ideas come to life. A visionary person with her feet firmly planted in her values, Marin's joy comes from nurturing a project from first seed through to flourishing plant.

Born in Guelph, Marin is now a proudly converted Hamiltonian. With a background in linguistics and working with vulnerable populations, she finds ease in getting to really know our clients and listening both to what they say and what they mean. Marin sits on the Board of Arts for All (formerly Culture for Kids in the Arts), is a Provisional RGD with the Association of Registered Graphic Designers, and a volunteer with Community Fridges HamOnt. On the weekend, she's likely sewing up a storm, watering plants, or kneading dough for pizza night.

PROJECT TEAM

Mike Ecclestone

Partner + Client Services Director

Education

B.A. English + Geography (Honours)

Post-Grad Certificate, Small Business + Entrepreneurship

About

From project proposals to ongoing communication, Mike understands that the success of every project depends on clear expectations and mutual respect. You'll find him asking questions, keeping you in the loop, and ensuring you're thrilled with the end result.

With a background in professional sports sponsorship and events, Mike's enthusiasm for making things happen is an essential piece of the Kitestring team. Mike doesn't rest until you feel heard, and he can translate wants into surprising and spectacular results. Mike also sits on the Board of the Hamilton Chamber of Commerce, representing small businesses in our community. Born and raised in Hamilton, with some time spent living in Ottawa, Mike is an avid runner, and can be found playing hockey or ultimate frisbee during the week, and out enjoying all the culinary experiences Hamilton has to offer (including his own backyard!).

Ebonee Adams

Junior Graphic Designer

Education

Advanced Diploma, Graphic Design

About

Ebonee is a creative thinker who is passionate about creating impactful designs and sharing memorable experiences within the community. She strives to effectively communicate through versatile and inclusive design and has a newfound passion for eccentric and unconventional design trends.

Born in London, ON, Ebonee now resides in Scarborough and works with the Kitestring team remotely! In addition to her love for design, Ebonee enjoys experimenting with new creative outlets, such as illustrating portraits and making beaded necklaces. When she's not working at Kitestring, Ebonee can be found trying new recipes, tending to her plants, or caring for her bunnies.
